Artificial Intelligence and the Catholic Church's new evangelization

What potential role do artificial intelligence programs have for the Catholic Church's new evangelization? A great deal according to human — and AI — experts.

How online AI program that can “talk” to users, can be “used in service of the mission of the Catholic Church, including education and evangelization,” the highly advanced chatbot answered in the affirmative — and gave a caveat.

“AI program can assist in the mission of the Catholic Church by providing information and answering questions related to Catholic teachings, beliefs and practices, which can aid in education and evangelization efforts,”

“However, it's important to note that AI program such as ChatGPT is just a tool and should not be relied upon as a sole source of information or guidance,” it added. “The teachings and guidance of the Catholic Church should ultimately come from qualified human experts, such as priests and other religious leaders.”

MESSAGE FROM SUPERIOR GENERAL

My dear confreres,

We all like to think that we are generous people and that we act generously in our daily lives but are we? Do we?

Generosity flows from our heart and being generous means sharing what we have. It is what God asked us to do and He shows us how to do it.

The Holy Trinity is filled with generosity. God is generous; He gave us his Son, Jesus.

Jesus is generous; He freely gave up His life for us and then gave us the Holy Spirit filled with gifts and fruits for us, generosity being one of these fruits.

God made us in His image and likeness and wants us to be like Him. If we are generous to our neighbour, He will be generous to us always giving us what we need, not necessarily the same as what we want.

Jesus told us how to be generous. He told us to give food to the hungry, drink to the thirsty, clothes to the naked, friendship to the lonely and by his actions He showed us how to do this. He told us, when we give to others, we're giving to him.

God loves a cheerful giver; when we give joyfully we're showing love to God.

As Missionaries of Faith, our charism calls us to be fully generous with our lives, our time, our possessions and our finances. We know that the more we give, the more we receive and the happier we become.

Let us ask our Patroness Mary Queen of the Confessors of Faith to help us to be always generous with the gifts that the Lord has given to us; our talents, our time, our finances and our prayers. If we use these as God wants us to use them, the world, our parishes and friends would see God's love in action.

I wish you an abundance of generosity.
God bless us all.

Lorena D'Alessandro declared venerable

On 20 May 2023 Pope Francis Declared venerable Lorena D'Alessandro, Roman catechist, engaged in the parish of Our Lady of Czestochowa, in La Rustica.

The eldest of three children, Lorena D'Alessandro was hospitalized at the Gemelli Polyclinic at the age of 10, where she underwent a bone transplant due to a tumor in her left leg. Two years later, the doctors realize that the tumor is reforming: her leg is amputated, in its place she will have a prosthesis which she will carry with great courage and a certain ease. A student at the classical high school, Lorena sings in the animation of the Mass and is the catechist in her parish at Rustica; also join a group of the Renewal in the Holy Spirit. In January 1981, she was diagnosed with left lung cancer with widespread metastases, which led to her death in just three months. On 8 April 2003, the diocesan phase of his cause for beatification was concluded at the Vicariate of Rome.

«I don't want flowers at my funeral – reads his spiritual testament -: the money that must be so uselessly spent should be sent as aid to the missions of the Silvestrine Benedictine fathers. Don't cry, but rejoice for me, because finally, if the Lord deems me worthy, I will be able to participate in eternal joy. I leave the poor of the world, I leave those who suffer in spirit and body, to the prayers of all".

In spite of her suffering, she attended school and parish, becoming involved as a catechist for First Communion, in voluntary work and taking convinced positions in line with the Gospel in years marked by social protest and the abortion debate.

Lorena had a strong sense of friendship and solidarity. She attended the Renewal in the Spirit and was inspired by the spirituality of the Taizé Community. She travelled to Lourdes and wrote her will on her return.

At the age of just 16, the tumour recurred in her left lung and metastasized. Her spiritual diary testifies to her faith, her devotion to the Eucharist, and her joy despite her suffering, which always lived as a participation in the Cross of Christ.

Fr. Stefano in his homily gave a very inspiring input to the children saying, "Making your First Communion shows that you want to be closer to Jesus every day, to grow in friendship with him and to lead other people to share in the joy he wants us to feel,"

At the end of the celebration parish priest admired and thanked all the catechist and the collaborators.

This challenging situation has a great impact on the pastoral, missionary, social and spiritual aspect of the people. We'd like to solicit your prayers for our people and for our missions.

Priestly Ordination Anniversary

The Missionaries of Faith of the Vice Province of Oceania would like to congratulate to all our priests who celebrates their priestly ordination anniversary during the month of June. Through the many decades of faithful service to the Holy Mother Church as priests of Christ and dedicated shepherds of souls, you have contributed in varied and significant ways to the spreading of God's Kingdom wherever you have served. Your commitment for the pastoral care of the faithful, your diakonia of the truth and loyal service to Jesus the High Priest and his Church, have been shining examples of the life-giving ways you use your gifts in the work of evangelization and witnessing. The Apostle to the Gentiles taught that when one member of Christ's Body is honoured, all the members share in that joy and recognition (cf. 1 Cor 12:26). Your powerful and grace-filled witnessing does indeed spur us on and allows for Christ's light to radiate ever more so in and through the life of the Church – mystery of communion. Receive, therefore, our sincerest and most profound wishes for this significant milestone in your lives as faithful servants of Christ and the Church, his Bride. Our prayers will continue to accompany you as your journey continues to unfold by the grace of God and your ministry is blessed in new ways for numerous years to come. With every blessing and best wishes.

SYNODALITY IN OUR COMMUNITY LIFE AND MISSION

Oceania Vice Province Annual Meeting - 20-22 June 2023

‘Gratia et Gaudium in Fide’ - our motto truly expressed how we deeply felt by God’s grace and joy in faith, to hug and to kiss one another, for the first time our Oceania Vice Province have come together and greet one another faccia a faccia, since the Covid-19 outbreak in the beginning of Lent season in 2020. As the words of the Prayer for the Synod in which Father Andrew has started our meeting: “We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.” Our last Annual meeting was in February of 2020 and we were so blessed with the presence of Rev. Fr. Jesse Dajac, the Superior General who came to Samoa for his canonical visit in the same year.

The prayer for the Synod is a reflection on the theme of Father Andrew’s missionary sharing in view of the Synodal Church: ‘SYNODALITY IN OUR COMMUNITY LIFE AND MISSION’.

Father Andrew's introductory remarks quoted from the Acts of the Apostles on what is fundamentally the heart and reality of being synodality religious, both as an Institution and as an individual. The early Christian community, "devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. All the believers gathered together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of the people. And the Lord added to their number daily who were being saved." (Acts 2:42-47). Our provincial superior reflected on the three dimensions which are profoundly interrelated and in which a religious community synodality journey together: Communion (community life), Participation (sense of belonging) and Mission (co-responsibility). The daily breaking of the bread is our communion as priests and religious to the priesthood of Christ and his priestly sacrifice. Thus, our daily nourishment enriches and deepens our intimate communion with Christ, in order to strengthen our participation in the mission given to us by Jesus himself. Father Andrew stressed the importance of Synodality reflecting the fundamental core of a religious community that walks together in harmony, no matter the situations of life interfere in our communion and participation in the mission of Christ. Either in good days or stormy days, we as missionaries of faith share God's providence in common, carrying together on our shoulders the burdens and sufferings of all its members, forgive one another and share ideas and thoughts together. This is the true meaning of the Synod on Synodality.

Wacom Divine Mercy Congress in Samoa and Missionaries of Faith Fathers

The negative vibes of clergy sexual scandals is harassing the Mother church from all sides of the globe, so ugly, blurring the joy of its presentation of the image of the Good News from above! The unchristian testimony of the ferocious fangs of the satanic imperialistic thirst of old demonstrated by the current insane European war in Ukraine, with the indifference and cowardness of the heavily armed nations standing by is a shameful picture of the heavenly kingdom preached far and wide for these 2000 years!
